

Elizabeth J. Green

March 11, 1919 - September 28, 2020

Susie Elizabeth Jenkins Green, was born on March 11, 1919, in St. Michaels, Maryland, to the late Mary Agnes and Harry Jenkins, they later moved to Laurel, Delaware.

In 1935, her family moved from Laurel, Delaware to Baltimore, Maryland. "Elizabeth," as she was affectionately called, was the oldest of her siblings; her brothers, William Jenkins (preceded her in death), and the Reverend Oscar W. Jenkins.

Elizabeth attended Frederick Douglass High School, graduating in 1937. She continued her education and was graduated from Coppin State College in 1940.

Upon graduating from Coppin State College in 1940, she became an educator, teaching at various schools; John H. Murphy Elementary School #119, and Harlem Park Elementary School #35. She retired in 1976, after 35 years of exemplary service, developing the minds of young people in Baltimore City. She also served as a secretary for the Women's Civic League.

On July 2, 1942, she married the late John A. Green, II, they welcomed their first son, John A. Green, III, on August 20, 1943, and two years later on August 2, 1945, their second son was born, the late Robert Van Green. On September 13, 1968, her eldest son, John A. Green, III and Valerie Miller Green, presented her with a grandson, John A. Green, IV, her pride and joy and the apple of her eye.

After retiring, her hobbies were; reading, cooking, traveling, watching TV, and listening to her music.

On her 100th birthday, March 11, 2019, she was presented with a Mayoral Salute and Citation from the Mayor of Baltimore City.

Elizabeth leaves to cherish her memories: her son, John A. Green, III; her grandson, John A. Green, IV; one brother, Rev. Oscar W. Jenkins; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ My deepest condolences to the Green Family in the loss of their loved one . Ms Green was a beautiful soul who loved her family very much and blessed me with her love and wisdom throughout my adult life . She was so kind and also welcomed my family to be a part of her family . She was engaging and grew fond of my family especially my grandson and she will be missed greatly by us all . I love you Ms. Green for always loving me and being a wonderful friend .
