

Elizabeth Janie Whelchel

September 8, 1914 - May 3, 2006

ELIZABETH JANIE WHELCHER was born on September 8, 1914, in Lumpkin County, Georgia to the late Frank and Ida Mae Martin. God welcomed Elizabeth home to eternal rest on Tuesday, May 2, 2006 after a lengthy illness. Elizabeth was a very quiet, soft-spoken, loving, considerate, caring, kind, gentle, giving, humble and thoughtful person. In other words she was SPECIAL! At an early age, Elizabeth became a dedicated and faithful member of Hickory Grove C.M.E. Church in Dahlonega, Georgia where she sang on the choir and accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. She constantly strived to live in accordance to God's law. In 1936, Elizabeth married her best friend and soul mate, the late Z. L. Whelchel. After moving to Maryland, they continued their Christian rearing and strong faith in the Lord by becoming members of the Gillis Memorial Christian Community Church in Baltimore. Elizabeth was a Woman of Faith who always put God first in her life, singing hymns and praising God everyday. Her beautiful, strong voice always echoed throughout her home. She constantly uplifted herself by singing "O How I Love Jesus" and "It's No Secret What God Can Do." She was truly a Woman of God who strongly believed in the power of prayer and if anyone had a problem she would say, "Go to the Lord in prayer". Her love for God was exemplified through the way she lived her life. Elizabeth was small in frame but a tower of strength for her family. Her motto was "To always get along, stay together and help one another". She was very devoted to her husband, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She loved them all unconditionally. There was nothing she would not do for her family. She took pride in providing them with a nurturing and wholesome home environment. She encouraged them to pray and trust in the Lord. She always set good examples for everyone to follow. She often said "If you cannot say anything good about a person then don't say anything at all." She was a very PRECIOUS GIFT. Elizabeth leaves to cherish her memory: four beloved daughters, Betty L. Hubbard, Barbara L. Freeman, Elizabeth J. Tolson, and Janice R. Whelchel; three devoted sons, Charlie L. Whelchel, Tommie J. Whelchel and Carlton L. Whelchel; two sons-in-law, three daughters-in-law, two brothers-in-law, two sisters-in-law, twelve grandchildren, twelve great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry for your losse. Please be comforted in knowing that one day your loved one has the hope of living again, and being reunited with your family. Daniel 12:2 tells us that there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. May you find a measure of comfort in his wonderful promises, as you remember the good times you shared with your loved one.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family. The process of dying was not Almighty God's purpose. That is why at Isaiah 25:8 Almighty God, Jehovah promised that He will swallow up death forever. Next, at Acts 24:15 Almighty God promised a resurrection that will take place. Yes, may these scriptures give you all a measure of comfort with the hope and promise of our beloved dead ones returning to life again.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##
