

Elizabeth H. Johnson

November 12, 1917 - January 17, 2018

Obituary

Elizabeth H. Johnson was born on November 12, 1917 on the eastern shore of Virginia to Maggie Giddens and Harry Kellam. Her grandparents helped raised her. She was the oldest of twelve children.

She married Edward Johnson while in Virginia and moved with him to Baltimore, Maryland to pursue better job opportunities. Elizabeth completed her education in Baltimore and graduated from Carver Vocational-Technical High School. She learned about real estate, saved religiously and bought a home with her husband in the Carrollton Ridge neighborhood.

Elizabeth was loved by relatives, neighbors and friends for her caring and compassionate ways. Elizabeth loved to garden, cook and relax in her beautiful home. Elizabeth departed this life peacefully on January 17th, 2018 at her home surrounded by loved ones. She leaves to cherish her memories two daughters, Dorothy Evans and Deborah Burgess; one sister Roseanne Taylor; three grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Mrs. Johnson's smile and laugh was so uplifting. I remember going to her house to visit Debbie and she often had fresh rolls or pork chops, or cake and sometimes all of it. She was a truly gentle soul full of love. I will miss her.

I send my heartfelt sympathy to your family for the loss of such a dear one to you all. She lived a long time, and I know that her years of wisdom and wonderful life stories she shared will never be forgotten. Such a lovely person surely must have brought much joy to all of you. Although she rests now she will never be forgotten by our loving heavenly Father who will restore life back to her, and she will live forever in peaceful conditions. May you be comforted. John 6:40
