“ My condolences to your family for the loss of such a wonderful person. I had the honor of being one of Mrs. Maddox students for the 5th and 6th grade in Baltimore, MD at Madison Square Elementary School. She was my favorite teacher! She later also taught my niece. I remember the ice cream cakes that she would purchase for all the celebrations we had in class. She was a great teacher and has always been a part of my mind and heart because of the lessons and compassion that she showed me.

“ I'm offering my sincere condolences to the family. Death is never easy it's so unnatural. I hope this will bring you comfort from the Scriptures at Isaiah 25:8 where it says he (God) will swallow up death forever and the sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. That's a sure hope for all mankind. May your family have a measure of peace.
