

Elizabeth M. Mason

June 24, 1917 - November 23, 2011

Elizabeth Marie Bennett Mason, daughter of the late William and Flora Bennett was born on June 24, 1917 in Baltimore, Maryland. On November 23, 2011, Elizabeth went home to be with the Lord.

Liz or Grams, as she was affectionately known, received her education through the Baltimore School System. She attended Coppin State College and Morgan State University where she received her teaching certificates, and New York University where she received her Master's Degree in teaching. She taught in the Baltimore City Public School System at school #162 and retired from #20.

She married Cornelius Mason, who preceded her in death and from this union one daughter, Jennifer Marie was born.

She started her religious journey at Sharon Baptist Church, later at Metropolitan United Methodist Church and then Shiloh Baptist Church. Liz enjoyed painting and ceramics but her real love was music. Liz played the piano, organ and the harp.

Her brothers Garfield, Charles, William and James; and sisters, Florine and Jessye preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her life: daughter, Jennifer Marie; granddaughter, Crystal Danielle; grandson, Duane Zan Conover; great-grandchildren, Toren Danielle and Duane Zan; niece, Linda Holmes; nephew, Jerome Bennett; and a host of extended family and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
