

Elizabeth Molock

April 27, 1938 - August 31, 2007

Elizabeth Molock, daughter of the late Martin and Edith Molock, was born on April 27, 1938 in Fairfield, Maryland. She suddenly and unexpectedly departed this life on August 31, 2007. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Upon completion of her high school education, she began her work of providing child care. It was her love of children that guided her to a long and fulfilled career as Day Care Provider. She truly enjoyed kids and began a revolving door of helping to raise so many, along with three of her own. She accepted Christ at an early age, and was baptized at Fountain Baptist Church in Baltimore City serving under the leadership of the late Rev. Dennis Burrow. She visited many different churches in support of her nephew Rev. Dr. Andre Humphrey. "Liz," as she was affectionately known, had a heart of gold. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends; watching movies, shopping and taking trips. Liz has helped so many people and would give anyone the coat off her back. She was a loving and free-spirit person. Elizabeth was preceded in death by: two sisters, Gertrude and Eldora; and four brothers, Cecil, Edwin, Elton and Clarence Molock. She leaves to mourn: three sons, Wayne D., Kevin and Kenneth Molock; one sister, Edith Humphrey; four brothers, Martin, Cornell, Sylvester, and Olen Molock; three sisters-in-laws, Sadie, Thelma, and Lucy Molock; two daughters-in-law, Ellen R., and Donnette Molock; nine grandchildren, Alphonso, Antoine, Brittany, Bobby, Dwayne, Darrian, Kaylan, Latasha, Lotita; two great-grandchildren, Bobby and Novea; and a host of other friends and relatives.
