

Elizabeth Helen Price

November 24, 1928 - October 28, 2012

Elizabeth (Helen) Price, daughter of the late Deacon Willie and Rachel Jenkins, was born on November 24, 1928 in Petersburg, VA as the third oldest of nine children. She departed this life on October 28, 2012 in Baltimore, MD after a lengthy illness.

Helen, as she was affectionately known, received her education at Peabody High School in Petersburg, VA. After completing her education, Helen moved to Baltimore with her childhood sweet heart Issam (Ike) Lawrence (D) and they married shortly afterwards. Out of this union Helen and Ike, had four children, Brian Lawrence, Donna Lawrence, Ronald Lawrence, and Gerald Lawrence. Thereafter, Helen remarried Otis Price, whom she remained married to until he preceded her in death. While in Baltimore, Helen made many lifelong friends notably the Wilson family, whom she adopted as her second family.

Helen worked for the State of Maryland at Rosewood Hospital for many years. While in Baltimore, Helen was active in African American social clubs, which led to her an avid role in politics. From campaigning for local politicians to working the polls, Helen took pride in democracy. When she could no longer go to the polls, Helen always talked about her involvement in the “political scene” and took the initiative to vote early.

Helen had a bustling spirit. Those who knew her well know that she wouldn't let any "grass grow under her feet". She enjoyed friends and family and was a giver of love, food, money, shelter and time—whatever you needed, she found a way to give.

Helen was called to glory on October 28, 2012. She will be forever remembered for her love of life and her warm spirit. Helen leaves behind her four children: Brian, Donna, Gerald, and Ronnie; eight grandchildren, Ronald Lawrence Jr., Danielle Lawrence, Morrell Lawrence, Shanae Lawrence, Tierra Lawrence, Jasmine Lawrence, Desmond McCant, and Melissa McCant; six great-grandchildren; three sisters, Rachel Daniels, Dorothy Rieux, and Modesteen Davis; two brothers, Stephen Jenkins and Richard Jenkins, and a host of friends and family.

“ I extend my heartfelt sympathy to the Price family. It is never easy to find the right words to say but may those precious memories of your dear loved one Elizabeth be foremost in your hearts and minds along with this wonderful promise that Jesus gave at John 5:28,29.

“ I would like to convey my sympathy to you in the loss of your loved one. I didn't know Ms Price personally but I have felt the loss of loved ones and can sympathize with the family's pain. I would like to convey my sympathy to you in the loss of your loved one. I found comfort in reading the Bible, as I'm sure you do too, so I just wanted to share with you one of my favorite accounts found in the book of John in John 11:14,14-44, here it shares with us a wonderful experience of a man named Lazarus. We can only imagine the tears of joy when every one heard Jesus call out in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come forth!” and before the very eyes of everyone gathered there he walked toward them from his memorial tomb. We too will experience such joy when John 5:25-28 is fulfilled. Please pass on my condolences to those who knew and loved Ms Price.

Grandma: Miss and love you. You were the best grandmother a girl could ask for. I always enjoyed your company. We would laugh over the phone or just talk stuff. I enjoyed our shopping trips as an adult and tagging along with you as a kid. I have nothing but fond memories of you. Thanks for being a blessing in my life. Your homegoing service was a beautiful tribute to your life. Love Always, Danielle
