

Elizabeth Redmond

January 1, 1921 - December 9, 2002

On January 1, 1921, Elizabeth was born to Jesse Washington and George Rowe in Westernport, MD and was raised in Keyser, WV. Liz married Vernon Redmond on November 11, 1942. Liz raised her children and lived for the majority of her life in Cumberland, MD. She and her husband, Vernon, relocated to New Mexico in 1974 and lived there for 2 years. Liz and Vernon relocated once again in 1976 to Baltimore, MD for 26 years. After experiencing the death of her husband, two children and multiple medical conditions, the Lord decided to call Liz home at the age of 81 on December 9, 2002. Elizabeth Redmond was married to the late Vernon S. Redmond for 39 years before he passed in 1981. From this union there were children, Juanita Elizabeth Redmond Hurt (deceased (5/02) and son-in-law, Floyd; and Cornelia Redmond Smith Chavez (deceased 3/99); she is survived by children: Mary Redmond, Deborah Redmond Biggs Turner, Delores Redmond Gibson, Vernon Junior Redmond and daughter-in-law, Ruby, Dianna L. Redmond, Michael A. Redmond, and Gary B. Redmond and daughter-in-law, Agnes. Other surviving family members include fourteen grandchildren, Patty Hurt-Jones and husband Ricky, Gifford Hurt and Yvette, Tracy Smith and wife Lashanda, Veronica Smith, Crystal Gibson Edwards, Juan Biggs and wife Chanel, Nicole Biggs Thomas, Kuren Redmond, Angel Redmond-Wallace, Tania Redmond Johnson and husband Clinton, Vernon Jay Redmond, Octavia Redmond, Tavon Burrell-Redmond (deceased), Monica Redmond-Washington and husband Stacy, Christa Redmond; eleven great grandchildren, two step great grandchildren, two sisters, Mary Madeline (Matt) Rowe-Phillips (deceased), Charlotte Rowe Hurtt and a brother-in-law, Joseph Hurtt, two brothers, Thomas Rowe (deceased), and Richard Rowe and sister-in-Law, Gwen Rowe, a cousin Mary Hilliard-Pulice, and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends. Upon the death of Liz's sister, Matt, she provided a home to five of Matt's eight children Phil, David, Wesley, Wayne and Bruce Phillips. While a resident in Cumberland, MD, she had been employed for many years at the Holiday Inn as a dedicated cook. Her cooking is often remembered for her large meals, Italian dishes, desserts and homemade rolls. A big joy for her was feeding people and having company around. With a heart of gold, she would give you whatever she had, though sometimes her last. She was fond of animals, and the most precious one of all was her dog, Ginger, who she leaves behind. In her earlier years, she traveled with several of her daughters and had the opportunity to visit New York, New Mexico, Hawaii, California, Denver, Atlantic City and Las Vegas. Her favorite singers were Mahalia Jackson, The Temptations, Country singers, and of course, her daughter, Connie. She was spiritually inspired by watching the Trinity Broadcast Network everyday. Her favorite movies were classics like "Cabin in the Sky", "It's a Wonderful Life" and "Imitation of Life, and Sci-Fi". Favorite past times she enjoyed, included playing bingo, the slot machines the State Lottery, and more. Her favorite colors were red and black. She really loved Christmas and had begun preparing her tree, outside lights, shopping, Christmas cards, and commented that she was thankful to God to see another Christmas before her unexpected death. Always, after talking to one of her children, relatives, or friends she would end by saying, "I love you." Liz was hardworking and a devoted and loving mother, grandmother, wife, sister, aunt, and cousin, and will be greatly missed by her family

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ All the thoughts I have of you don't get recorded on these pages, because I think of you everyday, all the time. There are so many reminders of you. You left your mark in this family, and I love you for every bit of it. Spring is here, and I have put your flowers out, just as you would have; and, today is the day (5/6/02) that your eldest daughter, my beloved sister Juanita Redmond Hurt, was called home. You were to have your knee replacement surgery on 6/13, the same day as her Going Home Service. That was a sad day for us, and remains a big loss for us here knowing that you, both of your daughters, Juanita and Connie are gone, but a huge triumph to know you are all together with our Lord, the Father of us all. For that, I am happy knowing that Daddy, you, and all those before you are together again. One day, all of us will be back with you and the Father, as He will call us when the appointed time comes. In the meantime, Ginger, your sweet little dog and I are keeping company. She misses you so, I do too. This is the first Mother's day (5/11/03) that you aren't with us physically, but you certainly are all around us. I will celebrate Mother's Day with you in my heart. May you and all the mother's in Heaven look upon your children with a smile. I thank you so much for being my mother, and teaching me how to be strong and a giver and countless other things. I love you, Mom.##imported-begin##Mary Redmond##imported-end##

“ Dear Mom, This season has been marked by snow and a lot of it. I believe it's because of you, knowing how much you loved the snow. I saw shadows on the curtains of something falling outside, which I thought was stuff from the trees; but when I looked out, I saw the sun shining brightly and a shower of snow flakes falling from heaven at the same time. It made me smile because of you. Yesterday a wet snow fell for most of the day, and I recalled the day they took you from Northwest Hospital to Sinai hospital on 12/1/02-- it snowed a lot that day too, and in February, a ton of snow fell on us. You would have marveled at it and loved it too. Thank you, God, for the wonderful gift and the sweet reminder. Loving you, your daughter,

“ I am so sorry for your loss. A loved one is a treasure of the heart, and to lose a loved one is like losing a piece of yourself. But the love that this person brought you did not leave, for the essence of the soul lingers. It cannot escape your heart for it has been there forever. Cling to the memories and let them find their way to heal you. The love and laughter, the joy in the togetherness you shared, will make you strong. You'll come to realize that your time together, no matter how long, was meant to be, and that you were blessed to have such a precious gift of love in your life. Keep your heart beating with the loving memories and trust in your faith to guide you through. Know that, though life moves on, the beauty of love stays behind to surround and embrace you. Your loved one has left you that...to hold in your heart forever. Love Always, Gail and Charles (Debbie's friend)###imported-begin###Gail & Charles McIntosh###imported-end###

“ Mom I will truely miss you and keep you in a very special place in my heart and remember a little more as each day passes. A mother's bond is something that's so very rare with her children that no one can explain, only feel between them. I will always be your baby ("baby of the family"). As I look back in time and see how you made sure you provided for your family and how you have made so many sacrafices for us as a true mother does. You have given something to each of us in your own little way to keep and always share with others. Time seperates us now and I can say for certain that I can't wait till we see one another again. “ Family, A mother's love is forever. As children, we can't comprehend or fully realize the meaning of our mother's love...how tender and how wise, the patience and forgiveness that are part of every day; the unexpected "little things" she does in her own way. Years go by before we can look back on life and see through older eyes and wiser hearts her love and loyalty. And yet it's these and other special things we'll hold so dear; for memories of her steadfast love will keep her ever near.
