

Elizabeth T. Caldwell

August 22, 1927 - October 14, 2002

A Time to Be Born: On August 22, 1927 in Knoxville, Tennessee a joyous and loving individual named Elizabeth Traylor was born to the proud parentage of Ernest Traylor and Ethel (Dunham) Traylor, who proceeded Elizabeth in death. A Time to Learn: Elizabeth, affectionately called “Liz” attended public schools in Baltimore, Maryland. She is a graduate of Dunbar Senior High School. She later attended nursing school and obtained her LPN License. She was also a member of the Eastern Star. A Time to Work: Liz worked in various hospitals throughout Baltimore City, until her retirement in the 1980’s. A Time to Love: On September 12, 1948, Elizabeth was joined in Holy Matrimony to Howard Davis Caldwell (deceased) of Baltimore, Maryland. From this union four lovely girls were born Rochelle (deceased), Stephanie, Wanda and Harriette. In the spirit of loving children she also, raised one foster daughter Dorothy Bryant. A Time to Worship and Serve: Liz accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as her personal Savior at a young age at Faith Baptist Church. As an adult she attended Sharon Baptist Church for more than 20 years. Liz decided to walk with her husband in worship, which caused her to change her membership to Rising Zion Baptist Church, where she served as choir member, nurse, and deaconess until her health began to fail. She was also, an adopted member of the Champions of Faith at Huber Memorial, church that she truly enjoyed. A Time to Die: While, on October 14, 2002 at Prince George’s Hospital, the doctors had prepared Liz to be discharged home. However, a Greater Doctor had another plan and discharged Liz to claim her inheritance in heaven. "Liz is Free." A Legacy Continues To Live on through: Three daughters, Stephanie Goode, Wanda Finch, Harriette Gibbs; three sons-in-law, Norris Goode, Sr., Ronald Finch, David Gibbs, Jr.; one brother, John Traylor of San Diego, California three sisters-in-law; three grandsons, Norris Goode, Jr., Jason Goode, and Howard Finch, two adopted granddaughters, Shaneita and Shantel Hunter, one uncle, two aunts, nieces, nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

“ May God comfort Wanda, Stephanie and Harriette and the rest of the family in their time of need. She has moved on to a better place. She is happy now. Even though I have not seen Miss Liz in a long time, she will always have a place in my heart.##imported-begin##Avent/Cager Family##imported-end##
