

Elizabeth Corine Tiller

September 2, 1926 - June 8, 2011

ELIZABETH CORINE TILLER, the daughter of the late James and Daisy, was born on September 2 , 1926 in Richmond, Virginia. She was educated in the Richmond, Virginia School System.

In 1945, Elizabeth was joined in marriage to James Leroy Tiller. From this union four children were, born: Joyce, Sandra, Barbara and James Jr.

Elizabeth was a loving and caring person throughout her life. She was a homemaker who was devoted to caring for her family. She was very supportive of her children's religious and academic education. She had a great love of music and really enjoyed playing the piano, singing and dancing with her children to the Motown sound. Elizabeth was also an avid seamstress and gardener.

During elections in her earlier days, you would find her at the polling place with friends handing out pamphlets in support of her favorite candidate. She also assisted the Girl Scouts with many events held throughout the years.

Elizabeth became known as the neighborhood babysitter as she was routinely entrusted to care for many of her neighbors' children and grandchildren. Elizabeth was an excellent caregiver whose love and compassion enriched the Govan community in which she lived.

Later in life, while transporting her granddaughter, Gerrie to bowling activities, Elizabeth developed an interest in the sport. She decided to join a bowling league and became a competitive bowler; she loved every minute of it.

On June 8, 2011 God called Elizabeth home. Elizabeth was preceded in death by her husband, James Leroy Tiller, Sr. and her son James Leroy Tiller Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughter, Joyce T. Bowyer, Sandra E. Stokes and Barbara A. Ferguson; one brother, Jesse Lee, Sr.; two sisters-in-law, Jacqueline Poole and Vera Lee; two sons-in law, Mark Bowyer and E. Marvin Ferguson Sr.; seven grandchildren, Gary, Tanya, Eugene Jr.; Gerrie, Bridget, Jeffrey and Delicia; eleven great-grandchildren, a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

“ It's been a year and a day since you left us; and YES it's been hard, but GOD has been with me every step of the way.

“ Favoriter memories of Gran: snapping beans, shucking corn, pouring too much rum on the fruitcake, homemade bread pudding and rice pudding, chicken and dumplings, gardening, snake killing, evening fires, Summertime, the banging on the kitchen window, your slipper, jumping on the bed, The Guiding Light, coffee, snowballs, sewing, black-eyed Susans, cherry trees, pear trees, hanging clothes on the line, playing jacks, and rubbing us with your special salve at night while we sleep. I always have and will remember you as I go about my daily routine because so much of what I do as a parent and person is what you used to do.

“ To Mom:
*If tears could build a stairway,
And memories a lane,
I'd walk right up to Heaven
And bring you home again.
