“ Since my mother's death, three great grandchildren were born into this world. She would have been so proud. She would have been tinkled pink to to see that my sister finally got her boy (grandson). My sister has five girls. My mother is truly missed and truly loved. I can't believe we celebrated mother's day for the second time without her. We went to the cemetery to lay flowers on her grave and reminisced about the times we spent together as a family laughing and enjoying each other's company. We listened to "I will always love my Mama" by the Intruders. What a classic. My brother stated, that he thought that song was made just for our mother because we listened to it all the time growing. When I realized at the cemetery that other people where playing it also. It brought a smile to my face and laughter in my heart because although our loved ones have passed on the love never dies. My mother lives on in our minds and our hearts and we celebrate her life.

Love you "Ma" Forever and Always.

Your daughter, Dora

“ I would like to express my condolences to Mrs. Hamilton's family and friends. The loss of one so dear can be very painful and difficult to bear that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But please be assured that God plans to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1 Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. These are the promises of God who cannot lie -Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. We all look forward to the time when mourning will be a thing of the past because 1Cor15:26 talks about a time when the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing. May you solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ It is truly unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Be assured that soon this sorrow will cease to exist. The Bible tells us that soon, " ... the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." (John 5:28,29) and that, "...he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. " (Rev 21:3,4) May you find comfort in these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
