“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

“ To the Family of Elizabeth Wood,

I was reading about the death of your loved one and i wanted to write to tell you how sorry i was to read of it. We die because of what we read at Romans 5:12. Sin entered into the world through one man and we all came from him so therefore we die too. So in the bible God has set forth a promise. It is at Revelation 21:4 . It says 'there shall be no more sickness, death or pain'. God loves us and He does not want us to hurt. So we know for sure He is going to do away with these terrible things because Titus 1:2 says God cannot lie. So we know that His promises will be carried out. Well I do hope these scriptures have been an encouragement to you and if you have any comments or questions please e-mail me.

Ms. Wood taught me and my brother in Elementary School, Ellicott City Maryland. Out of all my teachers doing my school years Ms. Wood was on teacher who had deep concerns for her students. She made sure all kids got lunch, she brought snacks for the kids, no matter what a child needed while in school she provided. She spent time with each child until he/she understood what was taught. Oh my goodness she was a sweet and kind woman. I am now 70yrs of age, my brother is 71 and we speak of her often, after all these years we still feel her love. I believe all 12 gates of Heaven opened for Ms. Wood. My condolence but please know that she is in the best of hands.

R.I.P. Ms. Wood
