

Ella B. Mealy

January 24, 1922 - April 18, 2005

Ella Walker Mealy, widow of the late Louis C. Mealy, was born January 24, 1922, to the late William and Laura Walker, in Virginia. She graduated from Central High School. At an early age Ella joined church. She moved to Baltimore in the early 1940's and went to work for the City of Baltimore in the Medical Records field until she retired at the age of 70. Suddenly on Monday, April 18, 2005, she answered His call at her home. She leaves to cherish her memory: her brother, Joe Walker of Richmond, Virginia; sister, Mildred Holley of Richmond, Virginia; nephew, of Norfolk, Virginia; a devoted friend and sister-in-law, Clemmentine Epps of Baltimore; two godchildren, Keith Richardson and Carala Taliaferro; nephew-in-law, Joe Perkins of Baltimore; and a host of cousins, friends and neighbors.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear Family I wanted to take this time to express my condolences on the loss of your loved one. I wanted to let you know that the Bible offers hope and comfort at times like this. The scriptures tells us that God is a God of Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 & Isaiah 66:13). They also tell us that he sees our plight is near to those broken at heart and those crushed in spirit he saves, Psalm 34:18. There is also hope of seeing our dead loved ones again in a different world free from all the stresses of this world. A world where there are no crimes, sickness, death, poverty, etc. These promises can be found at scriptures such as Psalm, 37:10, 11; Revelation 21:3, 4; John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 26:19; Hosea 13:14. There are plenty of other scriptures but time will not permit me to give them all to you. Please take the time to read the scriptures mentioned and draw comfort from them whenever you feel the need.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Hosea 13:14 says- "From the hand of Sheol I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them." Almighty God promises to recover or resurrect our loved ones from death. May you receive much comfort from this promise as I have.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your loved one. Death is a difficult thing to deal with, but the Bible is a wonderful source of comfort. Almighty God promises at John 5:28,28 that "...all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." May these words bring a measure of comfort to you and your family during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Sandy Sloane##imported-end##
