

Ella Bell Ellison

July 6, 1945 - October 6, 2019

Obituary

Ella B. Ellison, 74 of Richmond, VA passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on Sunday, October 6, 2019 at Henrico Doctor's Hospital. Ella was born on July 6, 1945 to the late William H. and Sara S. Tucker.

Ella was raised in Coatopa, Alabama. She moved to Hartford, Connecticut as a young adult. She received her BA in Counseling and Master's in Human Service and Administration. Ella was employed by the City of Hartford as a Social Worker. She worked many years in the Women for Infant and Children Unit. She was also a Crisis Counselor. Ella was actively involved in the National Alliance of Black Social Workers.

On December 4, 1994, Ella wed Eddie Ellison, Jr. and relocated to Richmond, VA. In Richmond, Ella worked in the Henrico County School System as an educator. She continued her vibrant social circle in various local endeavors. Ella had a strong Faith that was rooted as a child. Ella joined the Mt. Tabor Baptist Church in Coatopa, AL at an early age, she confessed and became saved on a Tuesday in 1957 at 12:00 p.m. Upon relocation to Hartford, Ella was an active member of Hopewell Baptist Church on the Usher Board and Hospitality Committees. Ella continued her religious upbringing in Richmond and became a member of the Antioch Baptist Church, under the leadership of Pastor Sailes. Ella was a very active church member giving of time and talents whenever and wherever needed.

Ella was driven by faith and family. She would tell anyone that HER family was the most important thing in her life. She was generous, kind and a practical joker! Ask anyone and they will have a story of her love as well as her ability to pull off the best prank.

Ella was predeceased by her son Stephen G. Tucker and two brothers, Lorenza and Larry Tucker. She leaves to cherish memories to her husband, Eddie Ellison, Jr., Richmond, VA; daughter, Candice Hudson; son-by-love, Dr. Andre O. Hudson, their son and the apple of Ella's eye, her grandson, Michael Hudson, Hilton, NY. She also leaves seven siblings, Delcina McGlothin of Jackson, MS; her twin and best friend Maxine Dunn, Hartford, CT; Flora (Tom) Hicks, East Hartford, CT; Robert (Darlene) Tucker, Waynesboro, MS; Roy (Ann) Tucker, Chandler, AZ; Denise Tucker (Walter Ragland), East Hartford; Paytrean (Dennis) Mink, Charlotte, NC; nieces and nephews that she adored and a host of relatives and friends.
