

Ella L. Frazier

December 22, 1931 - February 14, 2022

ELLA LOUISE FRAZIER was born on December 22, 1931 in Phenix City, Alabama to Richard and Queen Edmond. Ella was educated in Phenix City Public Schools and moved to Baltimore in 1956. Upon her arrival, Ella began working at Sinai Hospital from which she retired after 36 years.

Ella was affectionately called Auntie, Eise, Aunt Lou, and Louise by the people who loved her. Louise was married to Roosevelt Frazier in 1968. She was devoted to her only child, James Edward Edmonds. Louise was very committed to family. She loved to cook. Her favorite dishes were deviled eggs, ribs and baked ham. Louise enjoyed taking trips with her family and church family. She traveled to Phenix City often to visit family and friends and other cities in the U.S. and Canada with family. Ella was a faithful member of Mt. Pleasant Church and Ministries for over 51 years, moving with the church from 1801 E. Preston St. to 6000 Radecke Ave. Ella was on the Pastor's Aide Ministry and was committed to other ministries until her health failed.

Ella Louise gained her wings on February 14, 2022, the day of love, Valentine's Day.

Ella joins her mother and father, Richard and Queen Edmond; sisters, Annie Brown, Queenie V. Deloney and Annie (Ruby) Carroll; and nephews, Anthony Edmonds, Raymond and Curtis Brown.

Ella leaves to share a rich legacy: her son, James; her sister, Marian Dixon of Phenix City; three grandsons, Antwaun, Renaldo and Darrel; devoted in-laws, John and Pat Frazier; mother of her grandson, Gwenette Pettigrew; special friends, Willie and Eunice Lovejoy; and a host of loving nieces, nephews and friends
