

Ella J. Glenn

November 2, 1936 - February 20, 2020

A TIME TO BE BORN:

Ella Jeanette Glenn (AKA Jeanette and Auntie) was born on November 2, 1936 in Annapolis, Maryland to the late John E. Hunt, Sr. and Hattie E. Hunt.

A TIME TO GROW:

Ella attended and graduated from Wiley E. Bates High, Annapolis, MD with her goal of being a nurse.

A TIME TO LOVE:

Ella was married to Paul E. Glenn, May 19, 1977, who preceded her in death. No children were from this union, however, Ella has a daughter Laureli Blossom Wu (AKA: Sheila Nadine Wu), of California and a Stepdaughter Rochelle Glenn Johnson of Nevada.

A TIME TO WORK:

Ella worked and retired as a nurse for a total of 40 years at the Delaware Valley Hospital, Bristol, PA; Anne Arundel General, Annapolis, MD; Veterans Administration Medical Center, 9600 North Point Rd, Fort Howard, MD 21052, and Johns Hopkins Bayview Medical Center, 4940 Eastern Ave, Baltimore, MD 21224. SHE WAS A GREAT NURSE!

A TIME TO SERVE:

Ella grew up in a strong Christian family at Asbury Broadneck, UMC, Annapolis, Maryland. She really loved church. She sang gospel music with the "HUNT SISTERS," in the church. She played the piano; she loved her GOSPEL MUSIC.

When she moved to Dundalk she became a DEVOTED member of St. Matthews United Church, Dundalk, MD where she sang on the choir, and played for the church and choir; served on other boards at that church; worked with the children, drama, evangelism and many other organizations.

She later became a passive member of Centennial-Caroline Street United Methodist Church, Baltimore, MD and became a Lay speaker under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Iris Farabee-Lewis. Church was her whole life. There was never a time that she would not get up and go out in the community to serve -- passing out Christian tracts-encouraging the life of Christ.

She loved cooking and baking. She was well known for her "GOOD CRAB CAKES," and Sweet Potato pies.

A TIME TO DIE:

To God be the Glory, Ella Jeanette Glenn was called to her heavenly home on Thursday, February 20, 2020 at 9:52 a.m.
