

Ella Jackson

August 27, 1914 - November 7, 2003

Ella “Willis” Jackson, daughter of the late Henry and Lula Willis, was born on August 27, 1914 in Hopewell, Virginia (Dreamland). She departed this life on November 7, 2003 at Sinai Hospital after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Hopewell High School in Hopewell, Virginia. At an early age, she met and married Vernell Howard and five wonderful children were born. She left Hopewell, Virginia; moving to Washington, D.C. where she raised her children, then later she moved to Baltimore, Maryland, which she loved. She worked as a domestic engineer for some time and loved her job. She was very independent, loved music, dancing, and spending quality time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Ella had a quiet spirit and was loved by everyone. She leaves to mourn: a devoted friend, Mr. James Hopps and daughter, Mary Jane Collins; three children, Vergie Freeman, Welton Howard (wife Betty), and Nell Jackson (two children preceded her in death, Paulann Howard and Ella Barker); eighteen grandchildren, a host of great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
