

Ella L. Simpson

August 7, 1945 - June 14, 2004

Ella Louise Simpson, born in Baltimore on August 7, 1945, was the only daughter of Edward Eugene and Ella Louise Simpson. Ella had one child, Donella "Candie" Adams, a Chief Warrant Officer Three in the United States Army. Candie was born during her marriage to Donald Theodore Adams. A Carver High School graduate, she worked for Lucent Technologies, Inc, for thirty years before retiring in 1997. She returned to Baltimore to be with her family and pursue a life long ambition of caring for the aged. After completing courses in Private Nursing with Baltimore City College, Ella fulfilled her dream and worked as a private day nurse for a host of patients including Congressman (Ret) Parren Mitchell. Ella was a very caring person and opened her home and heart to everyone. She spent most of her spare time collecting antiques (furniture, pottery, jewelry) and clothing-especially pocketbooks. She was a clothing fanatic; not very expensive garments, but durable and fashionable. She could buy a ten-dollar dress from a thrift shop and wear it like a Saks Fifth Avenue designer original. Ella leaves her loving daughter, Candie, two brothers, Lorenzo Louis Simpson and Arthur Henry Simpson to mourn her passage. On brother, Edward Eugene Simpson, who preceded her in death, welcomes her to heaven. Her two sisters-in-law, Margo and Brenda; two former sisters-in-law, Ellen-Jane and Joanne Simpson; her former husband, Donald Smith; eight nieces, eight nephews and a host of great nieces and nephews hold her in loving memory. Her devoted friends, Joyce Thomas and Denise Shackelford are among her closest friends of whom there are too many to mention.

“ Ella was the person that took you into her life and you felt her influence immediately - it has been my lifelong embrace.

I have never met a person who knew without equivocation who she was and what God had her ordained her to do. Ella was my first adult friend as a child - always speaking true and never standing as a judge.

She was a person who walked in the world with purpose - brave, strong, determined, honest, faithful and kind without limitation. Ella was always the most interesting person in any room.

As I approach the 14th anniversary of her Home Going, I am honoring her memory by making a donation to Still I Rise (non profit benefiting victims of domestic violence and sexual assault) so that other women can grow brave, strong, determined and purposeful like Ella. Looking down from heaven, I hope she approves.

Blessings and eternal peace,

Lori Ann

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To family of Ella L. Simpson, I just read about the death of your dear loved one. Death is an enemy and has the power to take away someone we love. I just want to share a scripture from the God's Word the Bible with your family. Acts 24:15 Almighty God promise us that their is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous. The Bible is full of words of comfort.##imported-begin##Maryjane Stokes##imported-end##
