“ I would like to express my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection to life in a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Pslam37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort and he will sustain you during this difficult time (2Cor1:3-4, Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I know how it feels when you lose a dear loved one. Death is something we will never get use to. Our heavenly father Jehovah promises that in the near future 'no resident will say I am sick.' (Isaiah 33:24) What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##kari jackson##imported-end##

“ May you be comforted by our loving heavenly father. One day all tears of pain will be turned into tears of joy when our loved ones come back to life. John 3:16 reminds us: "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." All who put their faith in the Christ will see life, because he promised; "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." John 11:25. Soon all sickness, sorrow, pain, and death will be gone forever. All violence will also be removed and true peace will reign. Psalm 37:9-11. 2nd Peter 3:13. Jehovah promises too that all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his son and come out. John 5:28,29 May the wonderful promise of the resurrection be an anchor for your souls to comfort you in the days to come.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
