“ I send my warm and heartfelt sympathy at this time. The death of a loved one is so hard to come to terms with, because we miss our loved ones so very much. One day all of this pain and sorrow will be erased from this earth, because God will get rid of this enemy death that causes us so much pain. 1st Cor 15:26 tells us: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." One day all of our loved ones who have died will come back to life in the resurrection. Daniel 12;2 promises: "There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. Also, John 5:28,29 tells us: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. Please be comforted by the resurrection hope, because it will surely come true, because we worship a hevenly father who never fails to fullfill his promises. Isaiah 55:11 Until that glorious day arrives when you can see Ella again; may you be comforted by the precious memories that you shared with her over the years.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
