

Ella Louise Spencer

May 10, 1939 - May 6, 2003

Ella Louise Spencer, daughter of the late Eva Louise and Willis Tomlin, was born on May 10, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. On May 6, 2003, Ella slipped away to be the Lord after a lengthy illness. Ella received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. The Baltimore City Food Services Division employed her as a Food Manager until her passing. Ella joined and was the “first” member to be baptized at the New Berean Baptist Church in 1996. She was and active member of the Berean Church family. As head of the Culinary Food Ministry, she enjoyed preparing food (and she could cook) for her church family, visitors and friends. Although singing was not one of her “gifts”, Ella also loved to sing. Whether gospel, pop, socca or classical music, Ella always had her “own” words and “own” tune. Ella was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister, cousin and friend. All who knew her loved her...and will always cherish the times spent with her. She leaves to treasure her memory: three daughters, Joyce Nance-Frierson, Janet Nance-Richardson and Wanda E. Tomlin; one son, Kenneth Tomlin; one son-in-law, Vic Frierson; two sisters, Sheila Crudup and Elaine Tomlin; six brothers, Ernest “Tank” Tomlin, Leroy Griffin, Ronald Matthews, Clifton Tomlin, Alvin Tomlin and Leon Tomlin; four grandsons, Michael Darrell Fernandez, Errick Jones, Kenneth Tomlin Jr. and John F. Richardson IV; six sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law, five aunts, one uncle, nieces, nephews, cousin; and a host of other relatives and friends.
