

Ella C.M. Peoples

November 15, 1928 - September 21, 2024

ELLA CASH Mc NEIL PEOPLES, daughter of the late William and Alifair Cash McNeil was born on November 15, 1928 in Charleston, South Carolina. She entered into eternal rest on September 21, 2024, the last day of summer.

She was educated in South Carolina and at an early age she moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she was blessed to be tutored by the Singleton and Green families who were also from Charleston, South Carolina.

She dedicated her life to Christ at a young age at the Greater Zion AME Church in South Carolina.

When moving to Baltimore she attended several churches including Berean Baptist Church (Pastor Lunn}, New Mt. Hebron (Rev. Jackson), Zion Baptist Church (Pastor Prentice) and was a life-long member of Greater Zion AME Church in Charleston, South Carolina.

She loved the Lord and would always sing about the goodness of God.

Ella loved to cook, sew and spend time with her family.

She was a dietician, seamstress and later a geriatric home health care assistant. As a senior, she was employed by Hopkins Elder Plus as an assistant. She was so inspired by the love and care that was given there that when she had to make a decision it was easy, she was provided with 16 years of love and care making her feel like family.

She was preceded in death by her siblings Richard, Jimmy, Clara, Marie, Nathaniel and her granddaughter, Caressa.

She leaves to mourn: her children, Vivian/Pearl, Albert, Carnell, Joyceleen, Viola, Earl and Russell; her grandchildren, Tanya, Matthew, Carnell Jr., Andre, Tai-Chi, Chavonne, Chemere, Erica, India, Nigeria, Jamilla, Tarhirah, Muhsin, Abdullah and Aleathea; a host of great- and great-great-grandchildren; three sisters, Vivian, Annabel and Louise; one brother, Joseph; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ when we were young there wasn't a Saturday morning that we didn't awaken to the smell of fresh bread in the oven, good food cooking and gospel music on the radio.

We rarely knew what it was like to have store bought clothes because she was resourceful and made just about everything.

We always had a clean home with always a space for company to sleep.

We never knew how poor we really were. Never were aware of the struggle to pay the rent and maintain decent housing.

You had an unspoken pride about you kept us covered.

You never were the one to say “ I love you” or give an affectionate hug. But I guess it was because you were so tired.

Working so hard for so little money and having often so little rest. I thought it was by choice that Many times you only consumed toast and tea. But I discovered that was your way of making sure that we had enough.

At times you were a very hard and inaffectionate woman. You never learned to drive a car. walked almost every where.

So many times I had surgical procedures

I would wake up and you were there.

Often I wondered how you got there., How you would get home.

That was how you showed your love.

Even in the last months of life you showed such strength. You never complained!

Thank you for preparing me for life., Thanks for loving me the only way you knew how.

I love you. Rest in peace

“ We were planning to come see you for your birthday in November. We are going to miss the laughs and the jokes. I remember coming to MD from NY as a little girl and visiting. Somewhere we lost connection. Once we moved to SC and you also came to live in SC we gained that connection back. If you called I came. You were here at the hospital for the birth of two of my kids and helped care for one while I worked. We did not have much of a connection while I was young but in my teenage years up till now. The kids and I always talk about the time we all went to Quincy's and you would pull out a zip lock back and put the extra rolls in your purse and say "I will eat this later for snack". Oh yeah and the chocolate chip cookies. I'm not going to cry because I can hear you right now. " What you crying for? I'm okay and than you will come up with some joke and start laughing and dancing." We love you and miss you little lady.

“ My Dear sweet Granny, Oh I miss you so much already. I didn't get a lot of time with you on this side of earth. However, I made it my intentions to make the best of the time God granted us. We first met in the summer of 2013, my memories with you have been full with plenty laughter, arts and crafts, so many dad jokes about Carnell (don't worry I'll keep those safe) and honey, I loved when you use to cook meals for me, you & Jesus! I appreciate the 4 generations we gifted to my daughter, Keiahla, she loves to take the long car rides to Baltimore to see Granny and family. You are loved greatly and may your spirit have an everlasting peace.
