

Ella Mae Stanley

January 2, 1922 - February 20, 2011

ELLA MAE STANLEY was born on January 2, 1922 to the late Emma Henson Summerville and William Summerville. She departed this life Sunday, February 20, 2011 at 3:00 a.m. at Augsburg Lutheran Home.

Ella grew up in a large Christian family of five sisters and five brothers and started her Christian life at the local Allen A.M.E. Church. In 1934, she joined Emmanuel Christian Community Church. In her adult life, she faithfully attended The Prince of Peace Church founded by Rev. Beulah Baker. She was one of the “Mothers” of the church and was affectionately know as “Mother Ella”. She later became a member of New Beginnings under the leadership of Pastor Love.

Ella was educated in the Baltimore City School System attending Booker T. Washington Junior High School and Frederick Douglass High School.

In 1944, she was united in marriage to Nathaniel Stanley and from this union had two daughters, Marlene and Antoinette Stanley. Ella was known to take family members as her own and help raised them also. She was known by her grandchildren ad “Bi-boo” and to her great nieces and nephews as “Auntwee”.

Ella lived in the Bernard Mason Apartments for over 30 years and enjoyed the different activities they offered in the building. She looked forward to the “Eating Together Program” and enjoyed socializing with her neighbors in the building.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two daughters, Marlene Parker and Antoinette Thompkins; two son-in-laws, Jimmy Parker and Marshall Thompkins; three grandchildren, Lauren Williams and Katlean Mitchell; four nieces; two nephews; one special son, John Earket and a host of cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors of the Bernard E. Mason Apartments.
