

Ella Taggart

December 17, 1920 - April 20, 2003

Ella Taggart, daughter of the late Alice and Lindsay Beverly, was born on December 17, 1920 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on April 20, 2003. Ella received her education at Frederick Douglass High School in Baltimore. Upon graduation she became a full time employee of Stewart's Department Store. While working at Stewart's she made many friends and everyone loved to be around her. Ella understood very early in life the importance of dedicating and giving her life to Christ. She became a member of New Psalmist Baptist Church. She was a devoted member for over fifty years. She attended church every Sunday until her health would not allow her to do so. Ella's love for God always came first and was displayed through her devotion to her family, church and friends. Ella married Roosevelt Taggart. They spent many wonderful years together. Ella was affectionately known as "Big Mama" to everyone who knew her. To know Big Mama was to know a very warm, kind and fun loving person. Her abundant love was shown through her kindness and affection for her family and friends. Big Mama made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. Ella leaves to mourn: daughter, Grace Boone; brother, Lindsay Beverly (Uncle Bubby, who preceded her in death); two grandchildren, Ella Reed and Roosevelt Boone; grandson-in-law, Gregory Reed; granddaughter-in-law, Elaine Boone; three great-grandchildren, Larry, Tonya and Sierra; two great-great-grandchildren, Larry and Justin; Two nieces, Callie Sabb and Dorothy Beverly; cousins, Dorothy Thompson and George Montgomery of New York; two sisters-in-law, Lila and Minnie; four brothers-in-law, a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends, including longtime, faithful friend , Mrs. Hilda Locke.
