

Ella B. Thomas

November 9, 1958 - February 15, 2014

ELLA B. THOMAS, the daughter of the late Betty Thomas Gray and the late Howard Thomas, was born November 9, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. Ella was quietly called home on February 15, 2014 to be with the Lord, her sister Shelly and brother Anthony who preceded her in death.

Ella received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Upon graduation from high school, she attended Coppin State University. She worked various jobs during her life (Nursing Assistant, Waitress, Cashier, Sewing Machine Operator, Concession Stand Manager and Human Service Assistant). She retired after 20 years of outstanding service with the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services as a Lieutenant.

Ella accepted the Lord Jesus Christ and was an active member of the Evergreen AME Church before her health failed. She fulfilled her goal of moving to Fayetteville, North Carolina to enjoy her retirement. Once there she began studying, attending meetings and going to conventions with the Jehovah's Witnesses. She would often say if she missed a meeting it was like missing a meal.

Bea-Bea, as she was fondly known by family members, enjoyed family, cooking, dancing, sewing and being the fashion diva. She loved listening to music. She was a loving, caring and generous person.

She leaves to mourn her death: one son, Brandon Rodgers; three granddaughters, Day'zay, Jersey and Bria; niece, Tiffany Thomas; nephew, Aaron Thomas; great-nephew, Tre'quan Johnson; three great-nieces, Brianna, Shelly and Zaniya; two aunts, Carolyn Payne and Margaret Lee; two uncles, Edward and Carl Thomas; a devoted cousin, Margarett Page; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Thaddeus "Ray" Hargrove & family wish to extend their condolences to Ella's son Brandon and family. I spoke to Ella on the phone a couple of months ago about the passing of my grandmother (Geraldine Cureton). Although Ella lived in Fayetteville, NC. they kept in touch. She would call Grand to check in. Ella is loved and we will miss her smile.
