“ I am extremely sorry for your loss. I can not imagine the pain you have had to endure. May the God of comfort be with you now and in times to come. God's Word the bible promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 28,29 and also at Revelations 21: 3,4

“ We wish to extend our condolences to the family on the recent loss of your dear loved one. To lose a loved one in death can bring much pain and sorrow. May the family find comfort in what the Bible says at Daniel 12:2 which reads, "many of those asleep in the dust of the ground will wake up".

Warren Family - March 26, 2015 at 07:32 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
