

Ellen E. Boyd

December 31, 1935 - January 12, 2004

Ellen Elizabeth Boyd, daughter of the late Jim Boyd and Sarah Clemons, was born on December 31, 1935 in Richmond, Virginia. On January 12, 2004, God saw fit to call her home after a lengthy illness. May God grant her soul eternal rest. She received her early education in Richmond, Virginia. At an early age, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland to reside with her eldest sister (Ethel Shaw) where she continued her education and graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School. Upon completion of high school, she worked various jobs. However, after meeting her life long companion, William H. Wooden, who preceded her in death, she decided to become a dedicated and full time homemaker. Out of this union six children were born and one additional child that she valued very much as her own. (Her youngest child, Bernadette Wooden was called home shortly after birth). Ellen made and had numerous friends and many times was the life of the party. She was a loving, caring, loyal, God fearing, no nonsense, feisty and devoted person. Ellen the youngest, has the following siblings to precede her in death; Oliver Mayo, Ethel Shaw, Arthur Boyd, in addition to several extended siblings. She leaves to cherish her loving memory: five children, Sandra Lynch, Larry, Alvin Darnell, Beverly, Jerry Tyrone Wooden, in addition to one that she cherished as her own, Bernice Hopson; one brother, Saint Paul Boyd; one sister, Pauline Brown; two sisters-in-law, Mary Liza Mayo and Mary Boyd; three daughters-in-law, Diane, Theresa, Elaine Wooden; two sons-in-law, William Hopson and Algie A. Lynch; fifteen grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, two nieces, six nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My condolences on the loss of your dear mother. Our family gains much comfort from the Bible especially in times of deep grief. One such passage is Acts 24:15- "...there is going to be a resurrection" So there is hope of seeing your mother again. May this loving promise from God give you just as much comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the Wooden/Boyd Family If only there were something that friends could say or do, some way they might express their thoughts and help to comfort you, and yet, perhaps, just knowing that there are those who care, will help at least in some small way to ease the loss you bear##imported-begin##Brenda Royster and Family##imported-end##
