

Ellen R. Hamlet

August 31, 1921 - November 26, 2002

Ellen Roberta Hamlet was born to the late Arthur and Catherine Burrell in New Rochelle, New York on August 31, 1921. Ellen departed this life on November 26, 2002 in her home in Joppa, Maryland. Ellen was in the presence of her loving family. At the time of transition. Ellen received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. Ellen drove a school bus for The Harford County Public School System with two different Employers (Corn's Transportation & Mc Kowski). After retirement, she became employed with Fowler Distributing and the Fowler Family. In 1989, she retired from Fowler Distributing. On March 5, 1955 she was joined in Holy Matrimony with John Walter Hamlet. They were blessed with four daughters and six sons. Ellen was loving, compassionate, and always willing to help those in need. Ellen was very unique because she always gave freely of herself. Over her lifetime she opened her home to over 40 children through the Harford County Department of Social Services. She absolutely loved children. Ellen was a beautiful lady, a devoted & caring mother, a loving daughter, a caregiving sister, and a loving wife. Ellen loved people and she loved to entertain. She loved to cook and she enjoyed seeing people enjoy her cooking. Most of all she loved God and her Church Family. Ellen was a life long member of The Community Baptist Church in Joppa, Maryland where she attended services faithfully until the time of her illness. Her loving husband, John Walter Hamlet, preceded Ellen in death. Ellen leaves to cherish her precious memories, ten children (spouses) Ricki, Arletha (James), Darquetta, Yolanda, Daniel (Beverly), Allen (Carolyn), Earl (Helen), Alex (Rhonda), Samuel (Diane) and Jerry (Niesha); two sisters, Barbara Ann and Marva; one brother, Leonard; one sister-in-law, Louise Blake; fifteen grandchildren, Robert, Airy, Joycee, Kimberly, Tamara, James, Janine, Jennifer, Steven, Barbara, Samara, James, William, Sidney and Alex Jr., and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
