

Ellis Miales

January 23, 1949 - April 14, 2013

ELLIS MIALES, known as “Elbow” was born January 23, 1949 to the late James Wesley Miales and Ethyln Miales.

He attended high school in Baltimore City and furthered his education in Job Corps. He accepted Christ at the age of nine at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church on August 11, 1958. Ellis worked for the Baltimore Sanitation Department in the early seventies before he journeyed on to become a longshoreman.

He was a fun loving guy who kept you laughing and kept a smile on your face as well as his own. He loved music, dancing and dressing. Ellis was loved by many; he was definitely loved by a huge family.

He leaves to mourn: his daughter, Joyce Miales; and two grandchildren, Demetria Ward and Jadon Sessions; his brothers, Rudy and Joseph; his sisters, Deborah, Meda and Jane (also the siblings that have preceded him Elsie, Kenny, Kenneth, Roosevelt and Joyce). He also leaves to mourn a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and a host of other relatives.

“ Please accept my condolences in your time of lost. The bible tells us that death is not our friend, it's our enemy. Soon death will be swallowed up as Isaiah 25:8 says. The hope for the righteous in Gods new world to come as Psalm 37:11 says is an abundance of peace.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
