

Ellsworth L Hopkins

June 12, 1929 - August 31, 2015

ELLSWORTH LEON HOPKINS, affectionately known as Junior, was born on June 12, 1929 in Cambridge, Maryland. Ellsworth was the son of the late Ella Mae Hopkins-Pinder and Phillip W. Stanley.

He was educated in the public school systems of Dorchester County and Dunbar High School in Baltimore, Md. Ellsworth joined the military in 1952 and received an honorable discharge from active duty in 1954. He was commended for exceptional performance of duties and responsibilities. After serving in the military he worked for New Cumberland Army Depot in Pennsylvania for over 30 years.

Junior was a quiet person with a beautiful smile. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He had an impeccable work ethic that he passed down through generations. Family and friends knew that you could always find him under the hood of a car. It was known that you could always depend on Junior to help get your car going.

He leaves behind: three daughters, Rene Meddaugh (David), Pandoria King, and Charisse Johnson (Andrew); one brother, Thomas Pinder and a loving sister in-law Nannie; nine grandchildren: Artice Bryant (Kelly), Monique Diaz (Tony), Linton King III, Lindra David (Shawn), Prince Dixon, Keith Evans, Cierra Dixon, Tyseen Dixon and Olivia Perry, thirteen great-grandchildren and one niece, Chandra Johnson (John); and a host of other relatives and friends.

Ellsworth was preceded in death by: his wife, Shirley Hopkins; daughter, Ella Mae Cynthia Bryant; two grandsons, Terry Bryant and Ernest Bryant and one great-granddaughter.

“ When I think of Jr, which is what everyone called him, I think of a father I didn't know I had. Growing up without a father but with Pandora and Charisse as sisters not cousins, Jr always made me feel like one of his. Since Charisse and I were so close in age, we are sisters. Whenever we saw Jr and Shirley, they were always together by the way whatever Charisse got I got. He never had to, but he treated me the same as her. Some people are nice because they have to be, but he was nice to you because he wanted too. He was a man of few words, but his kind heart spoke loud and clear. He will forever be missed, but always be remembered in our hearts. Fly high and strong with the Angels and soar among the clouds because you've left behind a legacy of love that will go on forever. The niece he loved like a daughter. DeRue

“ My grandpa was the best. He was always there no matter what. We always knew we could depend on him showing up every Saturday with grandma. He was a man that always put a smile on your face and willing to teach anytime he knew that you wanted to learn. His legacy will always live on though us. I will always and forever love my grandpa. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
