

Elmer A. Hicks

February 28, 1917 - May 5, 2004

Elmer A. Hicks, last one of seventeen children of the late John and Martha Buchanan Hicks, was born February 28, 1917 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on May 5, 2004 after a lengthy illness. He attended Perkins Square Baptist Church of which his late uncle, Frank Williams was founder. He attended Baltimore public schools. Elmer joined the U.S. Army in 1946 and was a World War II veteran where he was a corporal. He was a life member of VFW Post 5367 Dorie Miller. After serving in the military, he was employed at Geo G. Ruppertsberger as a truck driver and butcher. He was dedicated to his job for over fifty years. Elmer, however, lived a very joyful life, and was a happy-go-lucky guy who family and friends loved. Everyone who knew Elmer Hicks was welcomed in his home. He was called "Uncle Buddy" or "Mr. Buddy." He was always loving and caring even sharing his wisdom of life. He leaves to mourn a host of nieces and nephews along with generations of great, two great, three great nieces, nephews and a host of friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
