

Elmer Alvin Snell

June 10, 1922 - August 12, 2004

Elmer Alvin Snell was born on June 10, 1922 in Howard County, Maryland to the late James (Ed.) and Sadie E. Jackson Snell of Elkridge, Maryland. He was called from labor to reward at the Maryland General Hospital. He later attended the public school system in Howard County. Elmer received his early religious training at St. Stephens A. M.E. Church. Elmer was united in Holy Matrimony to Lottie M. Ingram on June 18, 1981. He enjoyed working and traveling through most of the United States. He worked at the dock of the bay in Baltimore City as well as Boston Harbor. Before retiring he worked at the Social Security Administration Office. Elmer shared with the family many stories of how he survived to make it out in the world. He told the stories so happily and made them so vivid that the family would laugh and learn of his respect and wisdom in life. Elmer was a peaceful man who never complained not even in pain or sickness nor in well doing. Elmer affectionately loved and took care of his wife everyday. Elmer leaves to cherish his memory: a loving wife, Lottie M. Snell; three sisters, Bessie G. Hall, Sadie B. Fields, and Catherine M. Robinson; three brothers-in-law, Herbert Robinson, Levi Ingram and Mack McConnell; four sisters-in-law, Edna Snell, Agnes Snell, Lillian McConnell and Garnet Ingram; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by a son, Alvin and seven brothers.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
