

Elmer J. Faggins

October 24, 1927 - September 10, 2012

ELMER JUNIOUS FAGGINS, son of the late Joe Johnson Faggins and Marie Booker, was born in Cumberland County, Virginia. He transitioned from this life on September 10, 2012, after a lengthy illness.

Since his childhood, Elmer affectionately known to his family and friends as “Elmo,” was always creative and enjoyed working with his hands. His talent and self-taught skills led him to a career as a Master Carpenter.

He made numerous friends through his church membership at First Abyssinia Baptist Church. After relocating to Baltimore, Maryland, Elmo was able to showcase and further advance his Master Carpenter skills as an employee of the Baltimore City Department of Transportation. When he wasn't working you could find him on the water fishing. He especially enjoyed weekend road trips with his loving wife of thirty years, Carrie.

He leaves to celebrate and reflect on his life ; his wife of thirty years, Carrie Faggins; two daughters, Joyce Barnes and Paula Wealth-Bean; one son, Mitchell Anthony (Valerie Anthony) of Raleigh, North Carolina; Five Grandchildren, Tracey Duckett, Michael Barnes, Shayla “ Leasa” Evans, Latia Barnes and Darnell Overton; Nine great-grandchildren, numerous nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Elmer J. Faggins

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
