

Elmer L. Banks

December 20, 1939 - August 3, 2002

Elmer Leroy Banks, Jr., affectionately called Cozack, the son of the late Elmer Leroy Banks, Jr. and Anna Louise Banks was born on December 20, 1939, in Baltimore, Maryland. Cozack departed this life on Saturday, August 3, 2002. He was a fighter throughout his long illness. Cozack was educated and graduated from the Baltimore City Public School System. He was an advent student of math and was always called upon when the family needed help with complex financial matters. Cozack was a diligent worker throughout his life. He retired from Harbor Hospital Center as Head of the Dietary Department after thirty years of service. He continued his work ethic by forming the Father and Daughter Limousine Service after his retirement. Elmer and his wife, Eunice, united in marriage on December 20, 1994. Cozack loved the outdoors and would be the first to initiate vacation travel plans. His sister, Peaches wants him to know, "Brother, you will be deeply missed-especially your morning calls telling me to get dressed and let's hit the road." Cozack loved to drive to other states to view nature and its beautiful splendor. He loved life and made an adventure out of enjoying it. His motto was "You Ready". His loving wife said everyone loved him and members of the community knew that " Mr. Elmer" was always ready to lend a helping hand. Cozack leaves to cherish his loving memory, his wife, Eunice; his daughter, Bianca Banks-Dixon; his mother, Anna Long; two sisters, Anndell Banks and Roberta Beads; a brother, Bobby Banks; grandchildren, son-in-law, brother-in-law, nieces and nephews, a host of other relatives and friends. He also leaves to mourn a very good friend, Warren Smith, M.D.
