

Elmer Sewell

November 1, 1942 - May 4, 2007

Elmer Sewell, son of the late James and Josephine Sewell, was born November 1, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. Friday, May 4, 2007 he bid farewell to this old world and passed into the arms of his waiting Savior. He received his formal education at Dunbar High School. He was very active on the football team. After graduation he enlisted in the United States Marine Corps where he served in different capacities including two tours in Vietnam and as a recruiter. He received a Purple Heart and various other ribbons and certificates. He was honorably discharged. He was also employed as a Disabled American Veteran for over twenty years. Elmer leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Barbara Sewell; four children, Stacy, Tracy, Sheryl and James III; a special friend, Elsie Gerald; a grandson, David Ernest Sewell; brother, Jamal A. Rahman; two sisters, Zelma Saunders and the late Marleen Kenedy; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Elmer Sewell

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ May you find comfort in the scriptures, which tells us of the wonderful promise of the resurrection that will bring our loved ones back to life, Acts 24,15 says, "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Also Daniel 12,2 lets us know that There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up. One day your Elmer will open his eyes again in a beautiful paradise earth that God is creating. 2n Peter 3,13. May the hope of the resurrection bring comfort to your hearts as you cope with the loss of your loved one.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM