“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Elmore. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says..It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on Sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ *I send my sincere condolences to your family for your loss. May the God of peace, Jehovah, give you much comfort and strength to face each day with renewed joy, knowing that one day Elmore will live again by means of the ressurection. 2ndCor 1,3-4, Acts 24,15. Jehovah didnt desire this saddness for us, and one day there will be peace on this earth, and no more sickness or death will ever strike mankind again. 2nd Peter 3,23 promises us this: "But there are new heavens and a new earth in which we are awaiting, and in these righteousness is to dwell." As for the dead in the memorail tombs, they will hear Jesus"s voice and come out." May those beautiful promises found in the bible be a source of comfort to you in the days ahead. “ To The Mellerson Family: May Jehovah God be with you and your family during this difficult time. God revealed in his word the Bible that it is his purpose that the dead be restored to life by means of a resurrection. Jesus Christ himself said at John 5:28&29 that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." When a loved one dies, the Bible acknowledges the grief that a person can feel. Jesus even wept when his friend, Lazarus, died even though he knew he had the power and he intended to bring him back to life. Because of the promise of a future resurrection, I hope that your sorrow is not unrelenting. You can always draw close to God in prayer for comfort, and the Bible promises that "he himself will sustain you." Psalm 55:22##imported-begin##C
