

Elnora Hargrove

December 12, 1921 - October 10, 2001

Elnora Harris Hargrove, daughter of the late Oliver and Flora Belle Watkins Harris, was born on December 12, 1921 in Chase City, Virginia. She departed this life on October 10, 2001 after a lengthy illness. Elnora, who was affectionately known as "Sweet Pea," received her education in the public school system in Mecklenburg County, Virginia. She was employed as a domestic engineer prior to her illness. She married the late William H. Hargrove, and out of this union four children were born. Elnora was a sweet, gentle person who had a quiet strength and wisdom that many sought. She loved to talk and could often be found sharing entertaining stories with family and friends. She had a great sense of humor with a belly-rolling laugh. She was always happy and had a positive attitude about life. She loved to travel, cook, sew, sing and dance. She was always reading or doing crossword or jigsaw puzzles. She leaves to mourn: one son, Charles Rayvon Hargrove; three daughters, Brenda Jean Green, Linda Hargrove and Sharon Hargrove Archie; one daughter-in-law, Frances Hargrove; fifteen grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren, four great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Sally Pettus; four nephews, five nieces, other relatives and friends. MOTHER Your time has come, your journey is done, We've seen your strength, you've fought and won; All your tasks are finished today, You gave us the candle to light the way; We shed tears of joy for the memories you've brought, We thank you for all the lessons of love and understanding you taught. Your Children

Tribute Wall

“ Elnora Hargrove

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ May the Lord be with the family and friends in this time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Maryland Muse##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Sweetpea, The strength in you made me realize that life is not short and God does gives us the time to be kind to others. Time to make amends with our enemies and seek forgiveness. We must know to take advantage of this time. Knowing to always count our blessings. I woke one morning realizing that with my eyes, I would no longer see your smile which made me feel that I am not bound by my limitations, but excel by my strength and courage to seek accomplishments. And then I could not help, but to return such facial gestures. I realized that although I had many oportunties, I never simply said, "THANK-YOU". And now, through my heart, I see your smile and through me, your life still lives on. I have learned so much from you. Remembering the first time I learned to ride my bicycle, (up and down McCulloh Street). Many times I fell, but I got back on because I knew that you were watching me from the window. You made me feel it was safe and OK. I now know that this life is like riding that bicycle. sometimes, I may fall. But I'll get back up and keep on riding. Cuz Grandma, I know that you are still watching me from your window. Love & miss you always, Wanda.##imported-begin##wanda##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Nanna, I only knew you for a short while ,but I enjoyed spending time with you. I will miss visiting you. Say Hi to my Mom & Dad for me.##imported-begin##Renee Sydnor##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ With Warm Thoughts and Sincere Sympathy##imported-begin##Cynthia P. Davis##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept our heartfelt sympathy in your time of great sorrow. Only those who have lost a loved one can know the depths of your feelings. We hope our caring will make your sorrow easier to bear. Sincerely, The March Family and Staff##imported-begin##The March Family & Staff##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM