“ To the family of Elois Johnson, my deepest condolences. May you cherish her memory. The Holy Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 states "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." God promises to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##

“ Hey margie, it been almost 3 month since you left and we are all missing you, I especially miss our talks about everthing, and your positive input in different situations and now I know just what you would say to a particular situation and you were always right, but still the face to face, and heart to heart conversation is what I miss the most, so till we mean again as always continue taking care of mom till I get there and see you both, love, hugs and kisses,

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. 1 Corinthians 15:26 rightly tells us that death is our enemy. That same verse reveals that Almighty God will destroy death one day. There is much hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 declares “..there is going to be a resurrection..” That will take place in a new world with the hope of no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Please read that at Revelation 21:3-5 and Isaiah 65:17) May you receive much comfort and strength from friends, family and the many loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
