“ To the family of Eloise Daye I just read about the recent death of your love one. I am deeply concerned about the sorrow and distress that you must be experiencing. I have some GOOD NEWS to share with your regarding loss. The Bible promises us that we will have the opportunity to see our dear love ones again. At John 5:28, 29 Jesus Christ assures us that “everyone in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out”. The promise of a resurrection is held out to all those falling asleep in death (Acts 24:15). Jehovah God has promised obedient mankind at Revelation 21:1-4 that very soon pain, sickness and yes even death will be no more, because according to 1John 4:8 “God is love”. I sincerely hope these words brought your family comfort##imported-begin##Louise Hibbler##imported-end##

“ May you find the comfort that you need to get through this sorrowful time in your lives. Death is so very hard to come to grips with; knowing that we can't see or talk to our loved one anymore. This pain touches our hearts so deeply. Jehovah God is well aware of our sorrow, and he promises that one day soon all sickness and death will be done away with forever. That is why he sent his beloved Son, Christ Jesus to makke the way possible for us to be done with sin and death, and all tragedy on the earth. When Adam sinned he lost all hope for mankind. Jesus reestablished that hope made possible by means of his ransom sacrifice. That is why 1st Corinthians 15,22 says: "For just as in Adam all are dying, so also in the Christ all will be made alive." One day soon John 5:28,29 promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." May the hope of one day seeing your loved one again in the ressurection help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
