

Eloise English

March 27, 1923 - April 29, 2009

Eloise “Doll” English, daughter of the late Rosa Lee Dow and Clemon Dow, was born on March 27, 1923 in Sumter County, South Carolina. She was educated at Ebenezer High School in Sumter, South Carolina. She married the late Willie Lee English, and had four children- James Earl of Queens, NY, Edward (predeceased), Stanley and Kenneth (wife Barbara). She retired from Spring Grove State Hospital in 1995, after which she volunteered at Grandparents Head Start Program until 2007. She accepted Christ as her Savior and became a member of the Morning Star Baptist Church in Christ in the early 1960s when she was baptized by the late Rev. Nathaniel Wicks. She leaves to mourn: her children, ten grandchildren and eight grand grandchildren; siblings, Pastor Hattie Mae Mickens of Columbia, SC and James (Jim) Dow (Clemon Dow Jr. preceded her in death); a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 9:36-42 lovingly reports on the resurrection of a generous and loving woman. We can imagine the ecstatic joy that was experienced by the onlookers. In the near future many joyful resurrections will take place. May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope by Jehovah God and Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the resurrection hope at John 11:38-44, where Jesus resurrected Lazarus. We are also promised at 1 Cor 15:26 that Jehovah is going to remove our enemy death. May these scriptures comfort and strengthen you.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible makes this comforting promise: "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves" (Psalm34:18). It encourages us to "throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you" (Psalm55:22). The Bible also teaches that the dead will live again. Jesus himself said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life" (John11:25). May you find comfort in these scriptures and the future promises that they contain.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
