

Eloise Young

February 25, 1935 - January 18, 2017

On February 25, 1935 God broke the mold and bestowed upon the world his heavenly angel known as Mrs. Eloise Young, formerly known as Mrs. Eloise Estes, to many as Weeder and grandma.

On January 28th, 2017 God opened the Pearly Gates to welcome her back home. She will be greeted by her beloved parents Doyle Oglesby, Sr. and Anna Lee Oglesby, dear siblings Doyle Oglesby, Jr., Edna Mae Owens, Mildred Smith, Sue Oglesby, Donald Oglesby, and her precious son Terry Lee Estes.

Eloise spent her childhood in Toccoa, Georgia where she attended Toccoa High School. She was avid member of the basketball team. She graduated with the Class of 1952 and thereafter, she moved to Baltimore, Maryland.

She opened her heart and home to anyone and everyone that crossed her doorsteps. She always greeted you with a smile, hug, warm conversation and you were guaranteed to hear "you want something to eat?" It was always a pleasure to be in her presence whether her children were there or not! She loved and "REPRESENTED" each and everyone of her children equally; she made it difficult to distinguish which one was her favorite because she had no favorite.

Eloise Young was one of God's finest creations...mom, grandma, sister, auntie, Weeder, best friend, and neighbor.

Eloise Young leaves to carry on her legacy: two sons, Roland E. Estes, Jr. and Anthony L. Estes, Sr.; two daughters, Denise M. Estes and Dwan F. Estes; six grandchildren, Tiffany, Corey, LaToya, Anthony, Jr., Timothy, Jr., Shaila; fifteen great-grandchildren; son-in-law, Timothy; two sisters, Ann Oglesby and Rebecca Stinnett.; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Eloise will forever be missed and every breath we take will forever be for her.
