“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Dear friends and family, I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Mrs. Alston. When we lose someone that is dear to us it can leave us feeling so empty inside. No matter how much time goes by the pain from losing a loved one is still there. I have found that the finest basis for encouragement comes from the Bible. A relationship with Almighty God Jehovah can help you to cope with the loss of Mrs. Alston. Never underestimate the value of prayer. If talking to a dear friend can help, how much more can pouring out your heart to the God of all comfort help you to cope. Notice what the Bible says at Psalms 55:22... Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous to totter. (Read Psalms 83:18.) There is a very encouraging brochure entitled "When Someone You Love Dies" that is very comforting. This article is free and it is based on the Bible. You can get a copy from anyone of Jehovah's Witnesses. I encourage you to read the scriptures that have been written from your copy of the Bible. Always remember that the first step to having a close relationship with your Creator is through prayer and reading your Bible daily. (Read John 17:3.) Take care.##imported-begin##Ava##imported-end##

“ Hello Family and Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. “ My sincere condolences to the family. Death is a difficult thing to deal with, but realize you are not alone. The scripture found at 1 Peter 5:6,7 says, "Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God...because he cares for you." I'm sure you and your family will find comfort and strength from this scripture during this difficult time.###imported-begin##Sandy Sloane###imported-end##

“ To the Alston's Family: I am sorry to learn about your recent loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. It may seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone that we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises a resurrection-Acts 24:15. I pray that you rely on God's many promises recorded in his word the Bible, for strenght to cope with your loss.###imported-begin##Denise King###imported-end##
