“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. Death is an enemy that unfortunately affects us all, however there is a source of comfort. The promise made at John 5:28,29 and the hope expressed at Acts 24:14. May your precious memories sustain you as we await the fulfillment of these promises.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get used to because it is not natural. God's Word the Bible describes death as 'the last enemy' at 1Corinthians 15:26. What a joyous day it will be when Almighty God Jehovah by means of his son Christ Jesus, brings our enemy to nothing!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to the time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev. 21:4). May you find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises found in his word the Bible because Titus 1:2 assures us that he cannot lie.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere sympathy to the family of Elreda at this time. One day soon death will be a thing of the past, because God promises that he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more. The former things have passed away. Rev 21:3,4. He also promises that the pain we go thorough in this life will also be forgotten, because at Isaiah 65:17 he promises, "For here I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and the former things will not be called to mind, neither will they come up into the heart." What a blessing that will be. May your family be comforted by the sure hope of the ressurection, as you await the day when you can be reunited with your loved one once again.
