

Elsie Martha Brown

December 14, 1916 - January 9, 2015

On January 9, 2015 God called His servant and daughter ELSIE MARTHA BROWN to come home. Elsie Martha Brown was born the 14th day of December 1915 in Baltimore, MD to Leona and Frederick Harris. Elsie Martha Brown, "Nana" as known by her family and close friends was the oldest of ten children. Nana married husband Milton Brown and had two daughters, Helen Bright and Grace Massingburg.

Nana lived her life for 99 years spreading love and joy over her loved ones. Nana enjoyed seeing to it that everyone around her was happy. Nana was a soul that everyone loved and depended on for strength. Her demeanor was always consistent and her countenance displayed the pride and love she had for loved ones. Nana took pleasure in sharing her experiences obtained throughout her long life spreading her wisdom to her family and anyone who cared to listen. She was always quick to give encouragement and she had a low tolerance for negativity and foolishness. Her wisdom and strength carried her throughout her last days. In the midst of carrying all the physical struggles that comes with longevity Nana never complained.

Nana leaves fond memories of joy and love with: her daughter, Grace Massenburg; grandchildren, Cynthia Gaskins, William Bright Jr., Stephanie Allmond, Spencer Bright, Angela Bright, Brenda Bright, James Jackson, Dante Jackson and a host of great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, great-great-great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a numerous amount of dear friends.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to The Brown Family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He assures us that "death will be brought to nothing" Other scriptures even show us that our dear loved ones will be resurrected right back here to a beautifully restored paradise. Our prayers are with your family.
