

Elsie M. Davis

April 21, 1930 - May 2, 2012

Elsie M. Davis, daughter of the late Robert Nelson Tyler and Elsie Tyler, was born on April 21, 1930 in Asbury Park, New Jersey. The Lord called her home on May 2, 2012 after her long fight with cancer.

Elsie had a strong love of life and enjoyed being around her family; which included her church family. She loved her church. As a devoted Christian, Elsie married the late Rev. Wayland L. Davis and today she will be laid to rest with him at the Veterans cemetery. Last year Elsie went to Houston, Texas and was able to spend time with her daughter, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. This was a gift that many children do not get to experience, they were blessed to have this time with her and thank God for making it possible. Baltimore was where her is, so when she recently returned, she was excited about seeing her family and friends again. Elsie never let her illness get her down; she always felt God had her life in His hand and whatever was meant to be will be.

Elsie M. Davis was preceded in death by her late husband, Rev. Wayland L. Davis. She leaves to mourn: five children (three sons and two daughters), Nashid Hamidullah and his wife Bernadet Hamidullah, Francine Stanback and her husband Junius Standback, Thomas Reed, Valerie Nichols and her husband William Nichols and Marlow Humbert; thirteen grandchildren, thirty-eight great-grandchildren, fourteen great-great-grandchildren, and a host of family and friends.

Mrs. Davis was a member of the Wayman Memorial A.M.E. Church for twenty years. Much of who she was started and ended with the church. Special thanks to the members and pastor for filling her life with so much happiness and feeling of completeness.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
