

Elsie Perry Greenidge

August 19, 1909 - July 4, 2010

Elsie Perry Greenidge entered into eternal rest on Sunday, July 4, 2010. She was born August 19, 1909 to the late Julius and Rachel Perry in Morristown, New Jersey.

After completing high school, she continued her education by attending the Drake Business School in New York and Virginia Union University, Richmond, Virginia.

Elsie resided in New York where she met and married Sylvan Henry Greenidge. Together they became members of Corona Congregational Church in New York where she enjoyed playing the piano and singing in the choir.

She was employed as a Personnel Department Interviewer by the U.S. Department of Labor in New York City for 25 years, earning her retirement from the State of New York.

Elsie is remembered for her love of music (especially Jazz), for being an avid reader and for her enviable extensive travels. She was an accomplished pianist commissioned both professionally and in her service to the Lord. She continued to be always willing to play whenever a request was made of her.

After retirement, she and her husband, Sylvan retired to Miami, Florida where they attended the Palmetto Community Church. Accompanied by her husband, who had a rich, warm, baritone voice; they performed at many church events.

She relocated to Richmond, Virginia in 1993 where she resided at Imperial Plaza for seventeen years. Here she continued to entertain the crowd with her music.

Preceded in death by her beloved husband, Sylvan, in 1984; she leaves to cherish her loving memory one step-daughter, Elaine Waldron, four grandchildren, eight great grandchildren, two devoted cousins, Rachel Randolph (Percy), Frank Whiting (Bernice), a host of other relatives and friends and three devoted and loving caregivers.
