Life's Journey

Elsie Virginia Johnson

"A smile for all, a heart of gold, one of the best the world could hold. Never selfish, always kind. These are the memories you left behind"

Our beloved, Elsie Virginia Johnson, 87 of Charles City, Virginia, completed her journey here on earth at her home with family at her bedside. On September 2, 2013, she accepted God's offering of everlasting life.

Elsie was a very loving and caring person, regardless of whether you were family or friend. She was elegant, brave and proud. “ Mrs. Johnson was a very special lady ,very loving and caring Whenever we met she had a lovely smile on her face and asked how was I doing.. When she told me she was ill and experiencing health problems she had a positive outlook. She kept her appereance always looking elegant and everything was in place. This is what I admired about her when facing dire situation she kept her apperane up and stasyed positive. She loved her family and was an excellent mother. It is good to know that there were women who were destined to walk this earth and to teach other. Mrs. Jomnson was one. To the family and ffriends I extend to you all my deepest sympatty. When you feel a little low read the bible and feel it's glow. Remember the resurrection hope when you are down it will help you to cope. She is now pain free and can say death will soon have no chains on me. I was tired and I had to rest knowing that Jesus Christ sacrifice accomplished the best. so when you long for me do not weep or sigh for I am nearby. When you allow my memories to live on it is only for a short while that I am gone. Isias 25.:8 states that death will be swallowed up in victory and we can look forward to seeing our dead ones retun to life again. John 5: 28,29 (The graves will be empitied) - Revelation 213,4. (no more pain sickness and death).

“ I am sorry to hear about your loss. However in this time of great sorry and grief its good to know that the bible holds out a happy hope for the future. At psalms 37:29 it tells us that the righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will live forever on it. That is indeed good news! At Acts 24:15 it states that there is going to be a resurrection of our love ones right here to the earth. The wonderful hope that the bible holds out is that we have the opportunity to be with our loves ones again on a paradise earth forever! What a loving God to provide such a wonderful promise. If you would like to hear more details on how you and your family can enjoy these promises you can contact me at ginrockwild@yahoo.com

“ Condolences to the Elsie V Johnson family. I am so sorry to learn of your loss. The Holy Scriptures assure us that the time will soon come when mankind's enemy death will be no more. May you find comfort in the words found in the Bible book of Isaiah 25: 8 when it speaks of a time when almighty God will swallow up death forever and tears will be wiped from all faces.
