“ I would like to express my sympathy to Ms. Shannon's family. The loss of a dearly loved one can seem untimely and can be painful at any age, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 confirms God's promise of a resurrection and states, "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth, the Bible, comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. One day we will no longer have to bury our loved ones again, because Jehovah promises an end to sickness and death forever. Isaiah 33:24 tells us that at that time no resident will say, "I am sick. Also Isaiah 25:8 promises that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. As for the dead, Acts 24:15 lovingly promises that they will be ressurected back from the dead. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises from our loving heavenly father, and may your cherished memories of Elsie bring fond memories to your heart. Have a good day!##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
