

Elsie Mae Maddox

April 11, 1919 - November 6, 2005

On Sunday, November 6, 2005 at 6:30 p.m., the Lord called ELSIE MAE MADDOX home. Elsie Maddox was born to the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee York on April 11, 1919 in Pike County, Georgia. On April 23, 1941, she married Luke Maddox at the home of Willie Ed, in East Point, Georgia. In 1949 they moved to Baltimore, Maryland and settled down and had a family. She worked at Lexington Market twenty years as a short order cook before retiring. She made many friends wherever she went. Her kind heart, bright smile and gentleness inspired many. She had a great love for her children and friends. GOD sent you a chariot to take you home. On Sunday night my Grandma slipped away. I knew she was going home but I didn't know the time or what day. GOD came to visit that night and saw she needed rest so He sent His angels to take her home because God knows what's best. He took her to a place of love, joy, peace, happiness where there is no more suffering and all her pain will cease. I love you Grandma and I will miss you too but our God knows what He wanted for you. She is survived by: her three sons, Samuel Maddox Sr., Luke Maddox Jr. and Matthew Maddox Sr.; four daughters-in-law, Ella Maddox, Regina Maddox, Carolyn Blackwell, Angela Maddox, and one sister, Rosa Lee Cameron; one sister-in-law, Emily Maddox; four grandsons, Gregory Maddox, Glenn Maddox, Matthew Maddox Jr. and Samuel Maddox Jr.; four granddaughters, Towanda Maddox, Stephanie Maddox, Lacle Maddox, Stacy Jones and D'Zire Maddox; one great-grandson, Corey Weddington; two great-granddaughters, Brittney Weddington and Ebony

Maddox; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry about your loss so would like to share a scripture that is found at Revelation 21:4 and it reads : " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry or pain be anymore the former things have passed away." So if i may i would like to ask you a question. Do you think that God purposed us to die? For a comforting answer please contact your local Jehovah's Witnesses###imported-begin## Spencer Dancy###imported-end##

“ I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of ones we love. Rest assured that God's purpose for us to give a ohg eternal life has not changed. Almighty God offers the resurrection hope found in the Bible at Acts 24:15 for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting at Rev. 21:3,4 for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come.###imported-begin## Anonymous###imported-end##
