

Elsie Mae Richardson

April 25, 1928 - September 13, 2022

Mrs. Elsie Mae Harris Richardson, affectionately known as “Ms./Aunt Elsie” of Montpelier, VA departed this life on September 13, 2022. She was the fifth born of ten children to the late Ellen and Carter Harris.

Mrs. Elsie was educated through primary school in Montpelier and accepted Christ as a child in Bethany Baptist Church. As an adult, she was an active member of Triumphant Baptist Church of Richmond, VA for many years. Aunt Elsie was known best for her quick-wit and easy-going nature, BBQ, and chocolate layered cakes. She was a simple person with simple needs. She loved to have family around, where she would school the young one on life or dominoes and duces; which were her favorite games to play. Enjoying the day in her smokers’ chair on the porch and daily scratch offs were some of the other simple pleasures she enjoyed.

She was preceded in death by her spouse the late Edgar Richardson, Sr., parents and siblings. Ms. Elsie leaves to cherish her memory four children; Theresa Ford (Fred) of Atlanta, GA, Geraldine Richardson, Gloria Rogers, and Edgar Richardson Jr. (Fina) of Richmond, VA, devoted sister niece; Mary Fountain, ten grandchildren; LaFaun Ealy, Atlanta, GA, Hortez Howard, Richmond VA, La’Scott Richardson, Hagertown MD, Lashaun Richardson, Richmond VA, LaTrice Smith, Richmond VA, Omari Johnson, Detroit MI, Shante Outlaw, Chesterfield VA, Danicka Howard, Richmond VA, Jamie Stokes, Richmond VA, Kevin Stokes, Richmond VA, (Montpellier VA), 11 great-grandchildren, seven great-great grandchildren, five great-great-great grandchildren, three children by life Debra Richardson, Willie Reese and David Williams (deceased), and a host of family and friends.
